

Tal-y-Llyn

The drive to Tal-y-Llyn from Tywyn is along a very pretty valley passing Dolgoch and Abergynolwyn. It arrives over the terminal moraine to reveal a stunning view of the lake. There is a good pub/hotel (Pen-y-Bont), and another hotel (Tyn-y-Cornel) both on the shores of the lake. The route up Cader starts just past the far end of the lake.

Tal-y-Llyn is on the B4405 that goes from Tywyn to the A487 which runs from Dolgellau to Machynlleth.

It is possible to do a longer trip and take in the Craft Centre, King Arthur's Labyrinth or the Centre for Alternative Technology all at Corris.

The Tyn-y-Cornel Hotel on the lake.

Pen-y-Bont pub and hotel. See
Hostelries and Cafés.

